in the eastern portions occasional rains.

THERE was a heavy frost in some parts of Ohio on the morning of June 7th.

SENATOR BLAINE promises to pay his respects to Ben Hill once more. He never fails to make things lively when he skins the Georgia Senator.

COL. JESSE P. JOHNSON, the popular proprietor of the Maxwell House, Nashville, died on Tuesday of crystallins, after a painful illness of one month.

THE Spofford crowd at Washington are as mad as March hares because their witnesses would not swear against Senator Kellogg what they wanted them to.

THE following from the Clarksville Tobacco Leaf, one of the leading Democratic papers in the State, is very naughty:

"The Knoxville CHRONICLE, speaking of Gov. Marks having at last broken silence on the State debt," calls him "our small-like Governor." Marks is just about as near right as anybody could reasonably expect him to be.
It is true he came around the track in a snail-gait, but we confidently believe he would never have got in on the home-stretch if the dear people had not been in his rear with a firebrand."

The following from the Winsboro (N. C.) News is not bad, especially as it comes from a Democratic paper:

"Somebody has told the joke on a military colonel during the late war that on one occasion he drew his regiment up along a river bank to attack a Federal gunboat. The gunboat began pouring in broadsides, and knocked the sand banks all to pieces, when finding his position untenable our colonel gave the unique but effective command, 'Unbank and secede.'" Directly, however, the shells began falling too thickly in the sedge and he shouted "Unsecede and bresh!" an order that was unanimously obeyed.
Even here the fire was too hot, and the underbrush was being torn all in tatters. Unable to stand the pressure any longer, he shrieked "Unbresh and secede!" It is a pity to make comparisons, but the Democrats in Washington have been taking a lesson from the old militia hero. They have at last got to the "bresh," and it looks as if some of them are getting ready even to "unbresh and secede."

Chancery Court at Knoxville, Tennessee.
No. 3215.

A. T. Cottrell, Chairman of the County Court of Knox county, vs. James A. Cooley et al.
[Appearing FROM THE BILL FILED in this case which is sworn to, that the defendant James A. Cooley is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, it is ordered that the defendant appear before the Chancery Court at Knoxville, Tennessee, on the 13th day of June next, 1879, and make defense to the bill in this cause, or the same will be taken for confessed. This notice will be published in the Knoxville Chronicle for four consecutive weeks, beginning May 14, 1879.

XLVI CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.

Mr. Beck offered an amendment, in the nature of a substitute, for the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill. The substitute does not change the amount appropriated, but is intended to improve the bill. Ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. Wallace, from the Committee on Appropriations reported, without amendment, House bill making appropriations for certain judicial expenses, and said he would endeavor to call it up for action to-day.
Placed on the calendar.

The bill continuing Gen. Shields's pension of $100 per month to his widow and children was taken up.
An amendment by Mr. Dawes, granting $50 per month to Mrs.
Fletcher Webster, was adopted. Mr.
Logan supported the bill and warmly eulogized his late friend Gen.
Shields.

The resolution offered by Mr.
Bayard was adopted ordering to be printed for the use of the Committee on Military Affairs the papers and proceedings in the original Fitts John Porter case.

Mr. Blaine called up the McDonald bill and proceeded to reply to Mr. Hill's speech of yesterday.
He read a resolution which Mr. Hill tried to have substituted for the secession ordinance in the Georgia convention of 1861, and said that the effect of the amendments which it proposed to make to the constitution would have been to extend slavery over every foot of territory in the United States. It also pledged Georgia to co-operate with the seceded States and to hold forts and other Federal property within her limits until the Atlanta Convention should decide whether she should secede or not. This, Blaine said, showed that Georgia was already in rebellion. With reference to retaliatory war measures framed by Mr. Hill, he said that it was so worded as to assume that every Federal soldier coming on Southern soil came to incite insurrection, and to punish him therefore. It was, he said, mean and foolishly offered, and wisely withdrawn.

Mr. Hill replied that Mr. Blaine had said nothing to which a sensible man need reply. Some statement of facts had not satisfied him, and he would make no further answer.

On motion of Mr. Lamar, House bill for the appointment of a Commissioner for the improvement of the Mississippi River was taken up, but, without acting thereon, the Senate went into executive session and afterwards adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, gave notice that during the day he would report from the Committee on Coinage a bill in relation to the trade dollar, and would ask action upon it.

Mr. Murch, of Maine, from the Committee on Public Building, reported a resolution for the investigation of the mode of construction, etc., of all public buildings of the Government, with power to sit during recess at Washington and other cities.

Under a point of order made by Mr. Garfield, the resolution was referred to Committee of the Whole.
A bill has been reported from the Committee on Civil Service prohibiting officers of claimants against or contractors under the United States from contributing money for political purposes. Owing to the expiration of the morning hour the bill went over without action.

The House then took up the bill providing for the delivery to Samuel Lord, jr., receiver of four one thousand dollar South Carolina bonds, now in the Treasury, which were captured during the war while hypothecated by the Bank of South Carolina, with the British Consul at Savannah. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Senate bill relating to jurors in United States Courts was then considered.

Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, by instruction of the Judiciary Committee, moved an amendment providing that in the selection of names of grand and petit jurors, the clerk and commissioner shall not have regard to political affiliation, race, color, nor previous condition of servitude, but solely to the qualifications prescribed by law.

Mr. Conger, of Michigan, desired to move a reference of the bill to the Judiciary Committee, but was prevented by a call for the previous question.

The Republicans then refrained from voting, and after an hour spent in fruitless call of the roll, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Committee on Privileges and Elections resumed the Spofford-Kellogg investigation. Mr. Merrick said he had no further use for DeLacy, as he had been arrested for perjury.
He (Merrick) had asked the District Attorney the privilege of assisting in the prosecution should he be indicted.

Mr. Hoar, alluding to the criminal charge, said it was an extraordinary proceeding.

The chairman was of the opinion that the committee had nothing to do with the matter, but Mr. Hoar thought it had.

Mr. Houston said when it comes up here we can argue it and Mr. Hoar retorted that they would argue it when it seemed proper.

Mr. Merrick said Mr. DeLacy was one of his witnesses.
Mr. Hoar remarked that the universal rule was that while any cause was pending criminal process was never used as a means of coer-sion of the witness, and that when such witness was arrested to decline further prosecution until the cause out of which the offense arose was concluded. The colloquy here closed.

Richard J. Brooks (colored) was then examined, and testified that he was a member of the Packard Legislature, and heard Thomas answer when his name was called; was induced by Cavanac to testify in favor of Spofford before the committee.

Chas. F. Brown (colored) testified that he also was a member of the Packard Legislature, and that Thomas and Seiviges voted for Kellogg.

Witness was finally bribed to go over to the Nicholls Legislature.
Murray told him if he would make out an affidavit on the Spofford side, he would receive two hundred and fifty dollars and about a thousand dollars beside. Richard Sines, colored, swore that Thomas and Seiviges voted for Kellogg and denied receiving money for his vote.

J. R. Watson (colored), who had made an affidavit in favor of Spofford, denied all it contained.
He said he suffered occasionally from moral turpitude, and claimed the right to lie as one of the privileges of an American citizen.

Robert B. Johnson (colored and ignorant) denied receiving money to vote for Kellogg. He was very much enraged at Murray, one of the previous witnesses, and said he was a scoundrel, and should be put in the penitentiary. The witness caused great merriment.

The last witness, Robt. F. Des-shard, was called by Mr. Kellogg.
He said that he was Chief Clerk of the Packard Legislature, and knew that Thomas and Seiviges voted, and produced the minutes to show that seventeen Senators and sixty-six Representatives were present.

Adjourned.

Major W. A. Marge, from Benicia Arsenal, California, has been ordered to command the Arsenal at Augusta, Ga.

Roger Jones, Assistant Inspector General has been ordered to inspect the Quartermaster's store-house and cavalry stables recently built at Fort Clark, Texas.

The Senate Judiciary Committee has referred to the sub-committee the question raised in regard to Secretary McCrary's nomination for the Circuit Judgeship to be vacated by Judge Dillon next September. The novel question is, whether a nomination can constitutionally be confirmed to fill a vacancy not yet created. If at the same time it is stipulated that any person nominated is to continue to occupy another office until the position to which he is prospectively appointed shall have actually become vacant by resignation or otherwise, the committee will defer action upon the Secretary's nomination until after they pass upon that question.

The Sub-Committee of the House Judiciary Committee, to which the continuation of Minister Seward's investigation was referred, met to-day and examined one witness, who was about to leave the country.
The case will not be regularly taken up until December.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, June 12.—The money to pay Alabama's interest on her bonded debt, due July 1st, has been forwarded to the National Bank of the State of New York.
The interest due to parties living in Alabama, will be paid here and in Mobile, and the money is now in the Bank of Mobile and the State Treasury for that purpose.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 12.—No arrests have yet been made in the 42nd street murder case, there being no evidence against any one. Full and concise statements from every member of the household will be taken as to their knowledge of the existing feeling between themselves and Mrs. Hull. It is thought the murder and robbery was an "inside job."

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, June 12.—The Times publishes the following from Capetown, dated May 23d: Two chiefs and three hundred of their followers from Basutovia have been captured. A force of cavalry visited Isandula on the 21st of May and buried the bodies of the soldiers who fell in battle on the 2nd of January last. Forty wagons were recovered.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

fire on Third street near Water street in this city has destroyed Milton J. Hardy & Co.'s whisky warehouse, J. S. Willett's tobacco factory and other property.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 12.—The remains of Dr. John T. Darby, an eminent surgeon, whose death occurred in New York Monday, reached this city to-day, and were interred in Trinity Church yard.
